

WHAT I HAVE

MAY 11, 2008 • THE DAY OF PENTECOST

SELLING THEIR POSSESSIONS AND GOODS, THEY GAVE TO ANYONE AS HE HAD NEED. ACTS 2:45
'SILVER OR GOLD I DO NOT HAVE, BUT WHAT I HAVE I GIVE YOU...' ACTS 3:6

SELL

The early church was known by their generosity. Christianity was even criticized as being 'a religion of widows and orphans.' As we celebrate the church on the Day of Pentecost, let's seek the same criticism and live with the same life-giving generosity. There are millions of orphaned children waiting for you to give them what you have. Give what you have.

SELL: Choose a personal item of value. Sell the item.
Collect the money.

GIVE: Go to www.hopechest.org; choose 'GIVE,' and fill out the form. Write 'What I Have 2008' in the Notes/Child Reference Number field.

These funds will be directed toward the most urgent and strategic programs in holistic and long-term orphan care. Some of those outreaches could include: feeding programs, educational initiatives, health care, community development, and spiritual discipleship. Children's HopeChest is a member of the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability and is a four-star rated charity by Charity Navigator.
